The Confucius Institute at the University of Michigan (CIUM)

CIUM is one of the core units for U-M’s diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives.

"At the University of Michigan, our dedication to academic excellence for the public good is inseparable from our commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion. It is central to our mission as an educational institution to ensure that each member of our community has full opportunity to thrive in our environment, for we believe that diversity is key to individual flourishing, educational excellence and the advancement of knowledge."

- President Schlissel, President of the University of Michigan

"CIUM strives to be a leader of U-M’s diversity, equity, and inclusion initiative. DEI messages are embedded in all CIUM activities, which promote Chinese arts and culture and bring cultural diversity to the U-M campus and its vicinity. With DEI initiative in the forefront of its mission, CIUM will increase its focus on creating more diverse programs in a more equitable and inclusive environment."

- Joseph Lam, Director of the U-M Confucius Institute
